

COVID-19 Policies and Expectations for Live Training Participants

To ensure your safety, CriticalPoint has implemented the following:

- Clean and disinfect according to CDC guidance to reopen, and daily mitigation practices when the facility is in use.
 - Clean AND disinfect the following more than daily:
 - doorknobs and handles
 - kitchen countertops, faucets, and sinks
 - toilets, bathroom faucets, and sinks
 - Clean AND disinfect the following daily:
 - tables
 - light switches
 - desks and chair arms
 - phones
 - keyboards
 - If surfaces are visibly dirty, clean them prior to disinfection. For our cleaning, PREempt wipes both clean and disinfect. For electronics, follow manufacturer's instructions for cleaning and disinfecting or use alcohol-based wipes or sprays containing at least 70% alcohol (on surfaces that can withstand alcohol).
- CriticalPoint will perform non-contact temperature monitoring before persons enter the building. Persons with temperatures ≥ 100.0 °F will not be admitted to the facility.

In addition, persons (participants, faculty, and staff) are expected to abide by the following:

- All persons must be free from cough, shortness of breath, sore throat, myalgias, and malaise.
- Masks must be worn at all times inside the CCTR. We will provide face masks, or you can bring your own.
- Frequent hand hygiene is stressed and must occur after use of the bathroom; before eating; and after blowing one's nose, coughing, or sneezing.
- Use proper etiquette relative to sneezing, coughing, and use of tissues and their disposal.
- Persons are encouraged not to touch their faces.
- All persons must maintain social distancing of six feet while moving in the facility.
- All persons must follow posted and conspicuous signage at the entrance as well as inside the facility in terms of social distancing requirements (e.g., follow directions for where to stand while waiting for the restroom).
- Employees may remove their face mask when alone in their private office.
- When attendees are not present, each employee chooses and uses a specific restroom, if possible.
